

Utah Transit Authority Personal Injury Protection Information

Revised 2/3/10

A passenger on a UTA bus or a pedestrian injured by a bus may be entitled to Personal Injury Protection benefits. To claim any of these benefits, an Application for Benefits - Personal Injury Protection and Authorization to Release Medical Records forms must be completed and returned with the information needed to verify your claim for benefits.

Medical Payments Benefits

The reasonable and necessary medical expenses up to $3,000.

To claim Medical Payments benefits, UTA requires:

- ▶ Itemized bills from your medical providers along with supporting treatment notes for each date of service.
- ▶ We may require information directly from the provider before paying bills submitted. The attached Authorization to Release Medical Records must be signed.

Work Loss Benefits

Loss of gross income and earning capacity from inability to work for a maximum of 52 weeks after the loss. This benefit need not be paid for the first three days of disability unless the disability continues for longer than two consecutive weeks after the date of injury. The maximum amount payable is 85 percent of a loss of gross income or earning capacity, not to exceed $250/week.

To claim Wage Loss benefits, UTA requires:

- ▶ Written verification from your employer of your wage or salary and the average hours you work per week.
- ▶ Written description from your employer of the physical requirements of your job.
- ▶ Written verification from your employer of the dates you missed work since the accident.
- ▶ A written release from your treating physician, indicating the dates you are disabled from work, and the date you may return to work.
- ▶ A written description from your treating physician of the physical restrictions you have due to your injury.

Special Damages

An allowance for services actually rendered or expenses reasonably incurred for services that, but for the injury, the medically qualified injured person would have performed for his/her household. This benefit need not be paid for the first three days after the date of injury unless the person's inability to perform these services continued for more than two consecutive weeks. This allowance cannot exceed $20/day for a maximum of 365 days.

To claim the Special Damage allowance, UTA requires:

- ▶ A written release from your treating physician indicating the dates you will be unable to work, and when you will be expected to return to work.
- ▶ A written description from your treating physician of the physical restrictions you have due to your injury.
- ▶ Affidavits signed by those who performed the services which you were unable to perform due to the restrictions of your activities indicating what services were performed, when they were performed, how often, what they were paid for their services, and that these were not services which they provided prior to the date of loss.

Other Benefits

Funeral Expenses not to exceed $1,500, and $3,000 for surviving heirs.

To claim these other benefits, UTA requires:

- ▶ An itemized invoice of the funeral expenses.
- ▶ A certified copy of the death certificate.
- ▶ Spouse's marriage license and/or children's birth certificate or adoption papers.

Please note: the above requirement lists are intended to assist you in providing appropriate information to present a claim. It is possible that upon review of documents sent to us, UTA will require additional information. An Application for Benefits - Personal Injury Protection and Authorization to Release Medical Records forms must be completed to apply for benefits. You can download these forms from the UTA website, rideuta.com/claims. Please complete these forms giving as much detail and information as you can. If additional space is required, please use the back of the form. If you feel that you are entitled to any of the above benefits, please provide the information required to process the claim. Please be sure to sign and then return the form as soon as possible.

Please retain this letter for future reference and call the UTA Office of General Counsel – Claims Unit if you have any questions.
